

The Irish Daily Mail FAI Cup quarter final draw took place during the week after last weekends games, and has seen us drawn against the winners of Crumlin United and Dundalk FC.

We reached the last eight after last weekends 3-1 victory over Janesboro FC thanks to goals from Ryan Swan, Kieran Marty Waters and Liam Scales.

The Irish Daily Mail FAI Cup Quarter Final draw in full:

UCD AFC v Crumlin United or Dundalk FC
Shamrock Rovers v Cork City
St Patrick's Athletic v Cobh Ramblers
Wexford Youths v Derry City

Games will take place on the week ending 11 September. The game between Crumlin United and Dundalk will take place on Tuesday 30th August, and it is expected that full details of the fixture will be announced shortly after this once we know our opposition.
