

A League final opposition revealed

Wednesday, 22 October 2008 13:41

Bohemians have qualified for the final of the A League and will take on UCD on the weekend of 9 November for the reserve trophy. The Bohs sealed their place with a 1-0 win over Derry at the weekend; they are now seven points clear of Finn Harps in second with two games to go. Bohs have 29 points from their 12 games - two more than UCD - but have scored 28 and conceded 11 compared to the Students' impressive 40 goals for and just 8 against. The venue for the final has yet to be decided.
