

Following last weeks announcement that we have qualified for this season's UEFA Youth League, the time of the draw is nearly here!

The draw for the first round of the Domestic Champions path will take place today (Tuesday 29th August) at 1pm Irish time (2pm CET) at UEFA HQ in Nyon. UEFA will be streaming the draw live on their website www.uefa.com

We will also bring you details of the full draw here and on our Facebook, Twitter and Instagram accounts as soon as we have them!

How does the draw work?

The 32 teams may be split into different groups for the draw, as defined by sporting and geographical criteria.

Any team can be drawn against any other team in their group, and the draw for the second round will also be limited to sides within the same group. The teams drawn first will stage the opening leg.

Dates

First round: 27 September & 18 October

Second round: 1 & 22 November
