

The Airtricity League of Ireland has launched its own online Fantasy Football competition, starting from next weekend's games.

You can register and pick your team on the league website - <http://airtricity.fantasyleague.com/Index.aspx>. Pick your 11 players. There's a maximum of two players per club - so you can't have all of UCD's resolute 2010 defence! - but no budget restrictions. There's a separate UCD league as well for local bragging rights. Entry is free, so pick a team and have fun!
