

U19 left back Sean Coyne has been called up to the Ireland U18 squad this week

Well done to U19 left back Sean Coyne who is currently away with the Ireland U18s in Switzerland for two friendly internationals.

Paul Doolin's side lost 1-0 in the first game yesterday, they play the Swiss again tomorrow (Thursday).

Sean didn't play yesterday but should play in the game tomorrow.

Only three Airtricity U19 players are in the squad with the rest of the squad consisting of players based in England. St. Pat's Tom Mulrone and Waterford United's Kevin O'Connor are the other two home based players in the squad.

Sean has been an ever present for UCD U19s this season since joining for Cherry Orchard, starting all eleven league and cup games. UCD sit top of the U19 Elite Division.

Other UCD U19 players Kilian Cantwell, Colm Crowe, Ryan Malone and Dean Hurley are on stand by.
