

The McQuillan Cup

Tuesday, 24 August 2010 15:18

Peadar McQuillan was the victim of Sudden Arrhythmic Death Syndrome [SADS], whilst playing five-a-side football in UCD in July of 2007.

The McQuillan Cup is an annual memorial tournament held in UCD in Dublin, and organised by his family, friends and team mates. This year funds raised are in aid of the 'Mater Heart Appeal' at the Mater Foundation .

For more information or to enter a team click here .