

The First UCD AFC Fantasy Football League is up and running.

The FA Premier League is back for another year which means the return of Fantasy Football. This year UCD AFC is running a Fantasy League for all UCD AFC players and fans. The top prize is €50 but that will rise the more people that enter. So register for the league here and follow the simple instructions to set yourself on the way to become a Fantasy Winner.

In addition the first twenty entrants will also be entered into a special head to head league that will be played every week at no extra cost. The winner of this league will in a 2013 UCD AFC Home and Away Jersey.

To get involved click here. In the "Ticket Information" box please select next available date.