

Following today's draw for the 2016 Harding Cup, with only seven teams confirmed as entering, UCD are still waiting to see who they will play in the Quarter Final. This is hoped to be confirmed as soon as possible. The winners of that match will then face either UCC or UL in the semi final.

Irish Universities Harding Cup holders UCC will renew rivalry with University of Limerick the side they defeated 1-0 in last years decider when the annual tournament confined to first year university students takes place in Galway from February 5-7 next year. While the hosts NUI Galway open their campaign with a quarter final tie against DCU.

The quality of players taking part this time around is expected to be of a high calibre with several university planning to include current SSE Airtricity National Under 19 League regulars from the top sides.

Friday 5th February - Quarter Finals

- (A) Trinity College Dublin v Maynooth University
- (B) NUI Galway v DCU
- (C) UCC v University of Limerick

(D) UCD v Team tbc

Saturday 6th February - Semi Finals

Winner Q/F (A) v Winner Q/F (B)

Winner Q/F (C) v Winner Q/F (D)

Sunday 7th February - Final