

The current inclement weather conditions have claimed this weekend's Superleague Fixtures.

Superleague fixtures for the weekend 3rd, 4th and 5th of December have been cancelled due to the current weather conditions. Matches scheduled to take place from Monday onwards are due to be played as planned with an inspection to take place Monday morning.