

The UCD AFC Superleague can be very daunting for anyone, especially the referee.

With another season just about to kick off an anonymous Superleague Referee steps in front of the camera heavily disguised to share his views on one of the most combustible league's in the world.

Why would you wish to get involved? The power trip and the adrenaline rush are top of this referee's list.

Hear what he has to say.