Registration is now open so get recruiting and start putting your squad together for one of the biggest challenges a UCD Student will face in their time in UCD, Superleague Glory! With 2 Cup competitions and 4 League Divisions there is plenty of football to be played.

Being male and holding a valid UCD student card are a good place to start, being crazy and possessing a good sense of humour also helps, as refereeing decisions may vary in quality! So get 18 of your mates together, pick a team name and get your team registered for Superleague 2020/2021!

Register Your Team:

To register your team, complete our simple online application form here to reserve your place, and then download our full registration form to register your players. All teams must register a minimum of 18 players.
