

Following his wonder goal last week which saw him go up for a corner and score a last minute equaliser with a brilliant bicycle kick, Conor Kearns will appear on Soccer AM tomorrow morning!☐

With the ball bouncing around the box after a number of blocks, it suddenly set up for Conor Kearns and he found the far top corner with a brilliant bicycle kick with set off rapturous celebrations on the sideline!

Since the goal went in, it has been receiving rave reviews across the globe and has now been viewed in over 155 different countries across the world, with almost 80,000 views on Youtube.

The goal was sent into Sky Sports and during the week they were in touch and Conor will be featuring on their renowned Saturday morning show, Soccer AM this weekend. Not only will his goal be shown, but he will also feature in games such as the Volley Challenge and Top Bin. He will be returning to between the sticks for the show, and can he pull off more heroics as he looks to prevent some famous players from scoring?

You can watch the goal for yourself below or alternatively you can tune into Sky Sports 1 at 9.45am on Saturday morning to see it for yourself!
